Life Issues

Dear Friends,

Since we've come to November, the month we traditionally remember our beloved deceased I think it time we spent some time and effort on "end of life issues", specifically assisted suicide. In order to avoid anymore euphemisms like abortion, which is a medical term used to hide the reality, which is killing an unborn child, or "partial birth abortion" which is infanticide, I find it better calling assisted suicide by what it is: the right to kill yourself with a little help from your friends. I'm afraid we have been too slow to look at this issue, as the proponents of this agenda have been long and hard at work. So, coming to a neighborhood near you soon...

We have seen the "right to kill yourself" spread across Europe quicker than crack cocaine. It's not only for physical illness but "existential suffering" as well. The Swiss Supreme Court has ruled that the mentally ill and chronically depressed have the right to kill themselves; it soon becomes law in Switzerland. What that means is if someone with a mental illness says their suffering is intolerable then they have the right to kill themselves in a hospital specifically designed for the purposes. It is also a mandated procedure covered by health care. We also now have physicians who will not treat attempted suicides for fear of interfering with someone's "right". In the UK physicians in an ER have to consult with a lawyer before treating someone who comes in as a result of a suicide attempt.

How have these proponents been hard at work? Well, they subtly yet effectively molded our language to reflect their concepts. So, we have all become used to hearing things like unbearable suffering, don't want to be a burden, quality of life, compassion and care groups etc. All code words for assisted suicide and euthanasia. They have softened us to the concept by pulling on our empathy for the sick and dying. Then they wack us with the accusation that if we let someone continue to suffer, we fail to "ooze compassion". Or in the case when we raise ethical red flags, we are accused of imposing our values and the worse label: intolerant. Then the Church (which they publicly state is their worst enemy) of course is accused of trying to impose the Catholic moral teaching on suffering and death on the entire world. All of this makes us pause and stop because we don't want to be seen as prolonging suffering and lacking compassion. The truth is we have real compassion, which mean literally "to suffer with". They have false compassion which is what I mean by "oozing compassion". It's a lie you are being fed.

And while you weren't looking the right to kill yourself

proponents have carefully been cultivating the soil to plant the idea that the mentally ill need this right. How fortuitous that groups like the AMA and the APA have expanded the diagnosis of mental illness. Suddenly large chunks of the population have been diagnosed as "clinically depressed" and suffering from anxiety disorder. Then there are all the children with ADHD (they had to invent that one). All those on anti-depressants, anti-anxiety drugs, and stimulants to treat ADHD/ADD fulfill the diagnostic criteria to be classified as mentally ill. So now we have lots of people who will need to avail themselves to the right to kill themselves. Why be alarmed at the increased rates of suicide when it actually is a right? Why stop someone from jumping off a bridge? And don't forget that anyone who is disabled could easily qualify for this "right". This may seem absurd but the proponents of this (and this is not a grass roots, from the bottom-up movement that people are clamoring for but one that large organizations with lots of money push from outside) have such twisted logic that they have become obsessed with promoting death. And I will say their strategies are darn good. They know how to change the meaning of words and introduce new concepts long before they introduce legislation. On top of this the Ministry of Disinformation (the media) demonstrates great bias towards them.

How do we respond? Quickly and effectively. First notice when the meaning of words and idioms subtly change, so for instance when you go from suicide to the "right to die", end suffering rather than kill yourself, "assisted dying", "rational suicide", "futile care", the duty to die etc. Next make sure you spread the message of life to everyone. Tell the clerk in the store how kind they were or how much they helped you or made your day easier. Every time we plant the seed in someone's head that they are good, that they are capable of kindness we put one more wall between them and their despair. And of course, you can always let them know God loves them.

The measure of our greatness is how we treat the most vulnerable and defenseless. So far we have failed miserably with the unborn. The terminally and chronically ill need our compassion and love. The mentally ill are trapped in a vicious cycle of desperation, fear and worthlessness. Let's not validate their worthlessness but try to show them how much dignity and worth they really do have. Canadian journalist Andrew Coyne said it best when he wrote, "A society that believes in nothing can offer no argument even against death. A culture that has lost its faith in life cannot comprehend why it should be endured."

Love, Fr. John B.

FEED. CLOTHE. HOUSE. HEAL.

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, may we open the door of our heart so wide that we may listen to the voice of Jesus calling us to help build his kingdom here on earth.

In 2 weeks, our conference hopes to help 100 less fortunate children and their parents to experience Jesus' kingdom here on earth. Your generous donations will make it possible to provide the parents with $50 gift cards to buy each child something they need or want for Christmas. If you can make a special gift for our 2022 ADOPT A FAMILY program, please place your cash or check in an envelope marked SVDP Adopt a Family and place it in the box on the office door or in the collection. St Vincent de Paul envelopes are available as you enter the church narthex in the brochure rack. Checks should be made out to: SVDP-OLL and write Adopt a Family on the memo line. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

FOOD DRIVE

This month we are collecting nonperishable food for Valley View Food Bank. Canned meats and vegetables, pasta, rice, bags of beans, cereal and holiday foods are needed. You may drop off your donations before and after any Mass in the narthex of the church. The MISSION church will accept these items before the Sunday 1:00 Mass.

CHARITY WEEKEND

Members of our St Vincent de Paul conference will be outside before and after every Mass conducting our monthly collection this weekend, November 19th, and 20th. Recently we received a call from a neighbor whose husband had died suddenly. After paying the funeral expenses she realized that she did not have the funds available to pay the lot fee for the mobile home that they owned. Your generous donations allowed us to help her in her time of need.

THRIFT STORE

The St Vincent de Paul truck is Not picking up donations at the church any longer. Please take your donations to the St Vincent de Paul store at the Crossroads Towne Center across from the RH Johnson entrance at 12751 W Bell Rd #133 in Surprise. For large items you can call for truck pickup at 602-254-3338.

The Aid to Women Center would like to extend their sincere thanks to Our Lady of Lourdes parishioners for the donations collected the weekend of October 22nd & 23rd. A list of some items received include: 70 clothing items, 12 toiletries, 6 toys, 3 boxes of diapers, and 14 packages of Baby Wipes.

We also collected $2,077 in monetary donations!

The November pregnancy center is First Way Pregnancy Center. Here is a list of their most needed items: Diaper bags, gauze receiving blankets, clothes for boys and girls ages 3 months to 12 months, maternity clothes in all sizes, nursing supplies and nursing pillows, pregnant mother sleep pillows, no-gas baby bottles, diapers (newborn, 2 & 4 sizes), baby wipes, teething toys. Direct contributions can be made at: 1stwaydonor.net

Items will be collected the weekend of November 26-27th.
