ALL SAINTS' DAY: A CALL TO HOLINESS

By Joey Langenbach

All Saints' Day is one of the great solemnities of the Church, celebrated each year on November 1. It honors all the saints in heaven, both those formally recognized by the Church and those whose holiness is known only to God. This day reminds us of our shared call to holiness and our hope to one day join them in eternal life.

The feast has ancient roots. The early Church honored martyrs who gave their lives for the faith. Over time, the celebration grew to include all who lived lives of virtue and fidelity to God. By the ninth century, the Church set aside November 1 as a universal day to celebrate every saint who has reached heaven. This is not only a day of remembrance, but a day of thanksgiving for the examples of faith that inspire us to persevere.

As Catholics, we look to the saints as models of how to live the Gospel. They were ordinary people who followed Christ with extraordinary love and courage. Their stories show that holiness is possible in every walk of life. Whether they were priests, parents, workers, or students, each responded to God's call with faith and perseverance. We are invited to do the same in our daily choices and relationships.

All Saints' Day is a Holy Day of Obligation, meaning we attend Mass to give thanks for the communion of saints and to renew our own commitment to follow Christ. During Mass, we are reminded that we are united with all believers, living and departed, in the Body of Christ. This communion strengthens us and reminds us that we are never alone on the journey of faith.

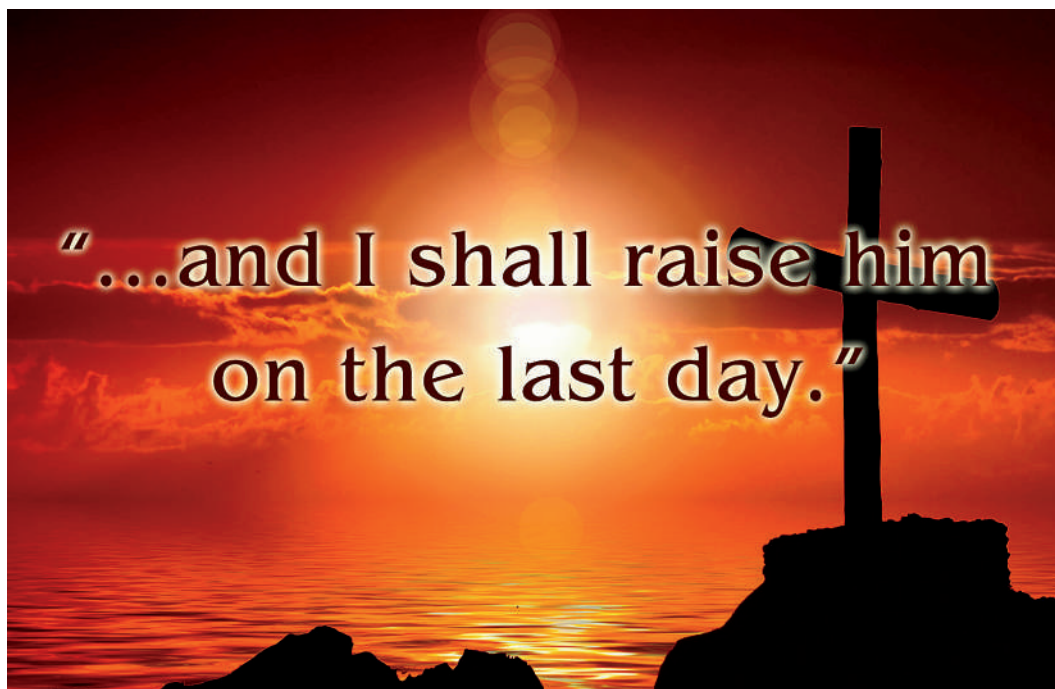

We incorporate the spirit of All Saints' Day into our daily lives by striving for holiness in simple ways. Pray with the saints. Read their lives. Ask for their intercession when facing struggles or decisions. Choose one saint as a special companion in prayer. Practice the virtues they lived—patience, humility, charity, and faithfulness.

Holiness is not beyond reach. It begins in small acts of love and faith each day. The saints show us that God's grace transforms ordinary lives into paths of light. On All Saints' Day, we honor them and renew our desire to live as faithful witnesses of Christ in our time.

Jim Michel (far left) and Hank Gorski (far right) of the Our Lady of Lourdes Knights of Columbus present Executive Director Jesse Ramirez Jr. with a $1,955.00 check for the Valley View Food Bank. The funds, along with 1,500 lbs of non perishable food, were raised during the September 18th food drive.

Thanks to the generous donations of the parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes church and the residents of Sun City West, the food drive was a great success.
