ST. LEO THE GREAT: SHEPHERD OF TRUTH AND DEFENDER OF FAITH

By Joey Langenbach

Pope St. Leo I, known as Leo the Great, served as Bishop of Rome from 440 to 461. He guided the Church through political turmoil, moral confusion, and doctrinal error with courage and clarity. His leadership, teaching, and devotion to truth earned him the rare title “Doctor of the Church.”

Born in Tuscany around 400 A.D., Leo served as a deacon under Pope Celestine I before being elected pope. His pontificate came during the collapse of the Western Roman Empire, a time of fear and uncertainty. Yet Leo stood firm, reminding the faithful that Christ’s kingdom endures even when earthly powers fall.

Leo’s writings shaped Christian theology for centuries. His Tome to Flavian became a defining document at the Council of Chalcedon in 451, affirming that Jesus Christ is one divine Person with two natures—fully God and fully man. This clear teaching protected the Church from heresy and preserved unity in belief.

Leo also served as a peacemaker. When Attila the Hun approached Rome in 452, Leo met him face-to-face and persuaded him to turn away. Three years later, he negotiated again to protect the city from destruction by another invading army. His courage, diplomacy, and faith in God’s providence made him a true shepherd of his people.

From St. Leo’s life, we learn three enduring lessons:

- Truth matters. Faith must be guided by sound teaching rooted in Scripture and tradition.
- Courage in leadership is service, not pride. True authority defends, not dominates.
- Hope remains firm when our confidence rests in Christ, not in the powers of this world.

St. Leo the Great reminds us that holiness and strength are not opposites. A heart anchored in truth and love can transform a troubled world. His feast is celebrated on November 10. May his wisdom inspire us to speak truth boldly, serve humbly, and place our trust in God above all things.

Respect Life: Did You Know?

Did you know that November is National Adoption Awareness Month and National Hospice and Palliative Care Month?

National Adoption Awareness Month is an opportunity to highlight the gift of adoption. Resources are available to assist you in supporting and praying for all whose lives are touched by adoption. Please visit the USCCB website www.respectlife.org to learn about:

- An Adoption Love Story
- Accompanying Expectant Mothers Considering Adoption
- Novena to St. Joseph: For Those on the Path of Adoption

National Hospice and Palliative Care Month highlights the topics of hospice, palliative care, and other end-of-life issues. Once again, you can visit www.respectlife.org to review:

- Catholic Care for the Sick and Dying
- Resources on End-of-Life Care

The National Catholic Bioethics Center offers a pamphlet titled “A Catholic Guide to End-of-Life Decisions” at its website store at www.ncbcenter.org. A free personal ethics consult is offered by calling (215) 877-2660, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Both websites mentioned in this article offer much useful information, so be sure to spend some time searching and learning about these two important topics.

Did you know that just over $12,000 was collected during the Baby Bottle Drive in September that benefited First Way Pregnancy Center? Katie Wing, the Executive Director at the center, extended their sincere thanks for the extreme generosity of the parishioners.

Did you know that Aid to Women Center is the November “Center of the Month” at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish & Mission? The collection will take place the weekend of November 22nd & 23rd. Items needed include convertible car seats, car seat/stroller combos, high chairs, clothing for 18-24 months and 2T-3T winter clothing, diaper bags, diapers in size 4-5-6, crocheted baby blankets and quilts, bibs, teethingers, rattles, burp cloths, baby wash and lotion. Direct donations may be made by visiting www.aidtowomencenter.org.

Did you know that the Respect Life Ministry meets the first Tuesday of every month? A pro-life rosary is prayed in the church at 1:00 pm, followed by the general meeting at 1:30 pm in the Fr. McGivney room. All parishioners are welcome to attend. Please direct any questions to Terese Boas at boasfamily@comast.net.
