04 • STEWARDSHIP CORNER

STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT
From Gratitude Flows Generosity

Peace be with you.

“Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

The disciples were gathered in fear behind locked doors when Jesus appeared among them bringing peace, courage, and a renewed sense of purpose. Rather than allowing them to remain in fear, Jesus sent them forth to continue His mission through the power of the Holy Spirit. In the same way, we are called to live as faithful stewards who share Christ’s peace, mercy, and love with others through our words, actions, and service. Even in moments of uncertainty, God equips us with the gifts and grace we need to serve with courage, forgive generously, and become joyful witnesses of His presence in our homes, parish, and community.

Petition:

That the Holy Spirit may strengthen us to live as faithful stewards who courageously share Christ’s peace, mercy, and love with all we encounter.

WIND, FIRE, AND A CHURCH BORN

By Joseph Langenbach

Fifty days after Easter, the Church celebrates Pentecost. The word comes from the Greek word for "fiftieth." For Jewish people, it was already a major feast, marking the giving of the Law to Moses on Mount Sinai. For Christians, it took on a new meaning. It became the day the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles and the Church was born.

The account in Acts 2 is vivid. The apostles were gathered in one place. Suddenly, a sound like a strong driving wind filled the house. Tongues of fire appeared and rested on each of them. They were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different languages. People from across the known world heard them and understood. Peter stood up and preached. About three thousand people were baptized that day.

This was not a private experience. It was public, visible, and loud. God was not working quietly. He was announcing something to the world. The Church was open.

What does this mean for you today? The same Spirit given to the apostles was given to you at Baptism and strengthened at Confirmation. The gifts the Spirit poured out were not only for the twelve men in that upper room. They belong to every baptized Catholic. The Spirit gives wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. These are not abstract concepts. They are real gifts for daily life.

Pentecost also marks the close of the Easter Season. For fifty days, the Church has celebrated the Resurrection of Jesus. Easter is not a single day; it is a season of rejoicing that builds toward this feast. Pentecost is the fulfillment of what Easter set in motion. Jesus rose from the dead, ascended to the Father, and sent the Spirit as He promised. The Easter Season ends, but what it celebrates does not. The risen Christ remains present in His Church through that same Spirit.

There is an old and fitting phrase used by the Church Fathers: Pentecost is the birthday of the Church. Before the Spirit came, the apostles were behind locked doors, uncertain and afraid. After the Spirit came, they went out and changed the world. Peter, who had denied Christ three times, preached to thousands without hesitation. That is what the Spirit does. He does not leave people where He finds them.

You are part of that same Church. The same Spirit who filled that upper room fills the Church today. Pentecost is not a memory of something that happened once and is now over. It is a feast that calls you to remember who you are and what you have received.

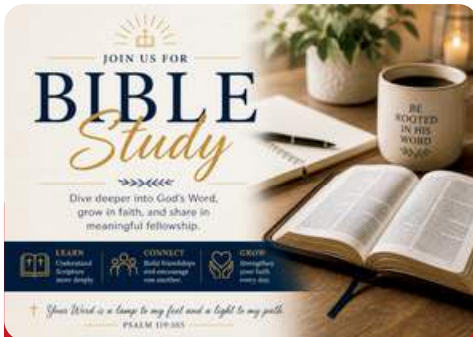

The Easter Season ends this Sunday. The mission continues.

OUR LADY OF LOURDES CONFERENCE OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Mission Statement

"A network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need."

A heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone that has made a financial donation to SVDP. In April of 2026 we provided 12 person-to-person home visits to neighbors in need within our parish boundaries. A total of 40 individuals ranging in age were given hope due to your kindness. With your generous contributions, we were able to provide $5,189 in utility assistance and $308 in furniture / appliance / clothing assistance. The ministry of SVDP is unique in many ways. How blessed are we to do this work! The question we ask, then, is not "would you like to help?" but rather, "would you like to meet Jesus?" We meet Him in countless ways!

Interested in becoming a VINCENTIAN? Want to learn more about the ministry? Our next meeting is Tuesday, June 2nd at 3:30pm in the Madonna Hall. Hope to see you there!

RECESSIONAL #412 – YE WATCHERS AND YE HOLY ONES

A detailed landscape painting of a mountain valley. In the foreground, a calm lake reflects the surrounding mountains and sky. A waterfall cascades down a rocky slope in the middle ground. In the lower right, a group of deer stands near the water's edge. The sky is filled with soft, golden light, suggesting dawn or dusk. The overall scene is serene and majestic.
