OUR LADY OF LOURDES CONFERENCE OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Mission Statement
"A network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need."

A heartfelt THANK YOU to anyone and everyone that has made a financial donation to SVDP. In May of 2026 we visited 17 homes of neighbors in need within our parish boundaries. A total of 71 individuals ranging in age were blessed and experienced hope due to your kindness. With your generous contributions, not only were we able to provide housing assistance to prevent evictions, we gave $2,914 in utility assistance, $1,900 in food support, and $381 in auto/gas/repair aid. A number of our SVDP members are snow birds and the amount of helping hands reduces quite substantially during the summer months. We sure could use your hands! Come be part of our amazing team of Vincentians!

† St. Vincent de Paul Society of Interested in becoming a VINCENTIAN? Want to learn more about the ministry? Our next meeting is Tuesday, July 7th at 3:30pm in the Madonna Hall. Hope to see you there!

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.

To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

Respect Life: Did You Know??

Did you know in paragraph 55 of his first encyclical, Magna Humanitas, Pope Leo XIV states, "Human rights are inviolable, since they are "inherent in the human person and in human dignity" ...? Among these rights, the first is the right to life, from conception to its natural end, without which it is impossible to exercise any other right. When this fundamental right is denied – as in the cases of induced abortion, killing of the innocent and euthanasia – we are faced with choices that the Church considers gravely wrong." Read the full encyclical at <https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/encyclicals/documents/20260515-magnifica-humanitas.html>.

Did you know Religious Freedom Week 2026 will take place June 22-29, 2026?

Resources are available to help the faithful pray for, reflect on, and take action for religious liberty, both in the U.S. and abroad. The resources are available at <https://www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek>.

The above information was provided by the USCCB Respect Life June prayer guide

Father's Day Prayer

Dear Lord, please bless our fathers today and always. Watch over them and keep them from harm's way. Hold each and every one of them in the palm of Your hand, blessing them in abundance with Your joy and Your undying love. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

Did you know that First Way Pregnancy Center is the June "Center of the Month" at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish & Mission?

The collection will take place the weekend of June 27th & 28th, 2026. Items most needed include diaper bags, strollers, clothing for boy and girl sizes 6 month to 2T, thermometers and baby personal care kits. Direct donations can be made at www.1stway.net.

Many thanks for your past item and monetary donations for all the pregnancy centers!!!

Did you know That the Respect Life Ministry meets the first Tuesday of every month?

A pro-life rosary is prayed in the church at 1:00 pm, followed by the general meeting at 1:30 pm in the Fr. McGivney room. There is no general meeting in July. Rosary will be prayed in the church at 1:00 pm.

Please direct any questions to Terese Boas at boasfmlly@comcast.net.

May we always cherish, defend, and protect every human life.

10 • A NATION CONSECRATED

By Joseph Langenbach

The Gospel never records a single word spoken by St. Joseph. He received an angel's message in a dream, rose before dawn, and acted. He protected. He provided. He stayed. His silence was not weakness. It was the fullness of a man who understood that love is not declared. It is done.

That is the call of every father.

God the Father did not simply speak His love into the world and walk away. He sent His Son. He entered into the cost of it. Every father who has risen before the sun, worked a job he did not love, gone without so his family did not have to, and swallowed his fear so no one else had to feel it, that man has reflected something real about the heart of God. Fatherhood is not a title. It is a participation in divine love made practical, made daily, made flesh.

And it is heavy.

No one tells you about the weight. The weight of knowing that small eyes are watching you, learning what a man is, learning what they deserve, learning what to become. The weight of carrying your fears in private so your family feels safe. The weight of wondering if you are enough, and choosing to show up anyway. Fatherhood asks a man to pour out what he has, and then find more. It is a sacrifice that does not end and rarely gets applause.

But some of you carried that weight without a blueprint. Some of you stepped into a child's life who did not share your last name or your blood, and you loved them without condition. Some of you became spiritual fathers, mentors, and anchors for young people who had no one. Some of you buried your grief, your exhaustion, and your doubt, and you showed up on ordinary Tuesdays when no one was watching. That is not a small thing. That is a heroic thing.

To every father in this church today, we see you. The world does not say it enough, so the Church will. You matter. What you do matters. The ordinary faithfulness of a father shapes souls. It forms children who grow into people who know how to love, how to sacrifice, and how to stay.

Here is the challenge. Do not wait for a perfect moment to tell your child who God is. Show them. Be present. Stay. Speak less and love more. St. Joseph built no cathedrals. He built a home. And from that home, the Savior of the world grew up.

You do not need words. You need to stay.

Happy Father's Day.

#222—I SING THE MIGHTY POWER OF GOD

A painting of a mountain landscape. In the foreground, there is a green valley with a dense forest of evergreen trees. In the middle ground, a large, rugged mountain range stretches across the horizon. The sky is filled with soft, textured clouds in shades of blue and white. The overall style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a focus on light and color.
