Please join our Cards for the Incarcerated group on Tuesday, October 13, at 1:00 p.m. in Madonna Hall to write encouraging postcards for Catholic inmates in Maricopa County jails and Arizona prisons. In July, 164 postcards were written and mailed. The need remains great, and all are welcome to help offer hope, prayer, and encouragement through this simple, meaningful act of mercy. Questions? The Respect Life Ministry prays that the coming year brings many blessings upon the parish and all who believe human life is precious, from conception to natural death.

STARS FOR OUR TROOPS

The Women's Guild is collecting worn and tattered U.S. flags for its Stars for Our Troops patriotic project. Donated flags must be woven and made in the USA. A collection receptacle is available in the Church narthex. All flags are handled according to U.S. flag disposal guidelines. Please consider donating your retired flags to support this meaningful project. Questions? Contact Myrna Thielmann at (623) 584-6887.

God Wants More Than Our Yes

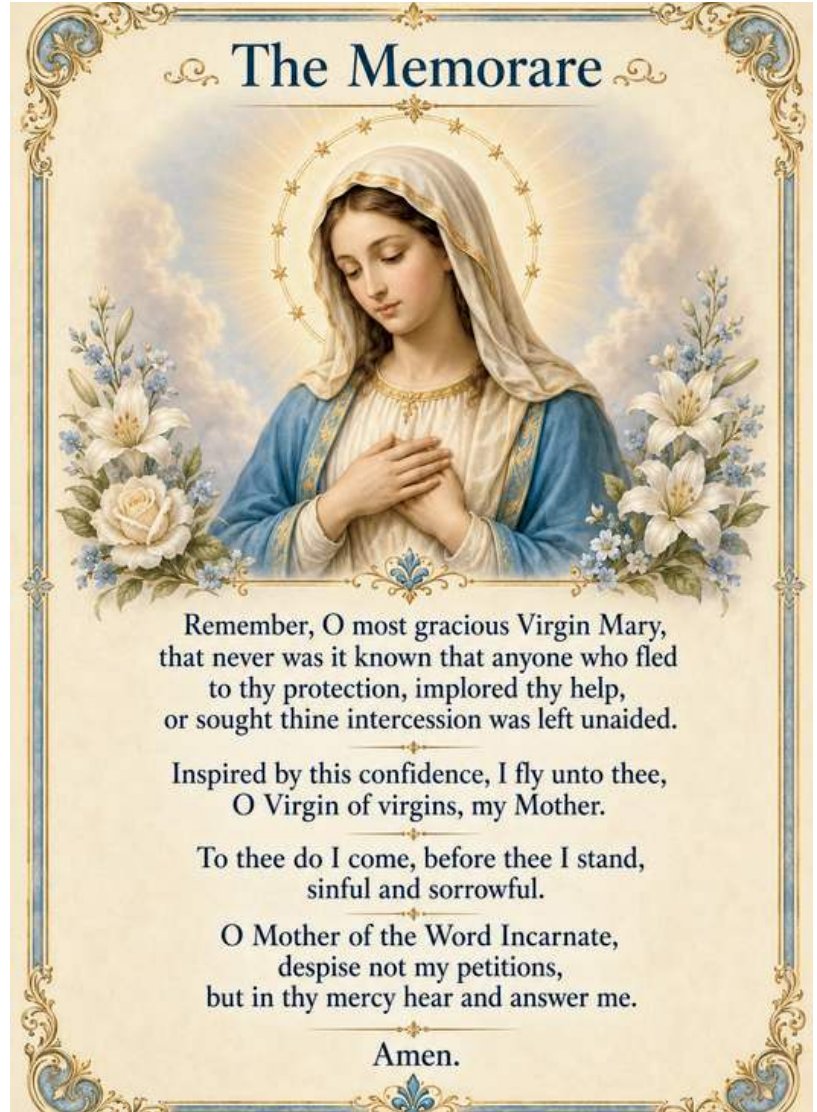

In Sunday's Gospel, a father asks his two sons to work in his vineyard. The first refuses, but later changes his mind and goes. The second says yes, yet never follows through. Jesus asks which son did the father's will. The answer is straightforward. The son who responded.

Your faith requires the same response. You say "Amen" when you receive the Eucharist. You profess your faith in the Creed. You ask God to forgive your sins. You promise to follow Him. These words matter because they express what you believe. Yet your choices show whether your words have taken root.

Look at your week. Did you forgive after asking God for forgiveness? Did you serve when someone needed your time? Did you pray when you felt distracted? Did you speak with patience when anger seemed easier? Did you support someone without expecting recognition? Each choice gives your yes to God a visible shape.

The first son gives you hope. His first answer was no. He changed his mind and obeyed. Your first response does not need to become your final response. If you neglected prayer, begin again. If you held onto resentment, start forgiving. If you ignored someone in need, reach out. If you placed your comfort before God, choose differently today.

God wants more than promises. He wants your spirit, your trust, and your obedience. You do not need to correct everything at once. Start with one faithful choice. Ask God where your actions fall short of your words. Listen to His answer. Then take the next step. Say yes to God, and live your yes today with faith.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.

To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

DID YOU KNOW? SUMMER GIVING MATTERS

During the summer months, our parish often sees a decrease in offertory giving as many seasonal parishioners return north or travel. However, most parish expenses continue year-round, including utilities, maintenance, staff, ministries, and parish services.

Your faithful stewardship helps keep our parish strong during these slower months. Please prayerfully consider maintaining your regular giving — or adding a little extra when possible — to help offset the seasonal summer decrease.

Every gift makes a difference.

Thank you for your continued generosity and support.

REFLECTIONS FROM THE GROTTO • 09

THE MIND OF CHRIST

BY JOSEPH LANGENBACH

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SAYING AND DOING

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells of two sons. Their father asks each one to work in his vineyard. The first son refuses. Later, he changes his mind and goes. The second son gives the answer his father wants to hear. He says yes, yet he never goes. Jesus then asks which son did the father's will.

This question reaches into your own life of faith. You profess your faith at Mass. You say "Amen" when you receive the Eucharist. You ask God for forgiveness. You promise to follow Him. Those words matter. Your actions must support them. Faith shapes how you speak, forgive, serve, pray, and treat people when no one is watching.

The first son also gives you hope. His first response was wrong, yet he changed his response through action. God does not demand a perfect history from you. He asks for faithfulness today. Look at your own promises to God. Where have your actions fallen short of your words? God still calls you to follow Him. Your next response matters. Choose one step, then follow through today.

THE MIND OF CHRIST

Saint Paul gives us a clear picture of Christian discipleship in his Letter to the Philippians. He calls Christians to reject selfishness and empty glory. He asks them to care for others and place their needs before personal pride. Then Paul points directly to Jesus. He tells us to share the same attitude found in Christ.

Jesus shows us obedience rooted in love. He does not seek status or praise. He takes the role of a servant. He humbles Himself and accepts death on the Cross. His obedience reveals what love asks from us. Love serves. Love sacrifices. Love places God's will before personal comfort.

You live this teaching through ordinary choices. Listen before speaking. Forgive instead of feeding resentment. Help someone without seeking praise. Give your time when someone needs you. Admit when you are wrong. Pray for the person who frustrates you. Christian humility starts with small daily faithful decisions. Ask yourself one question each day. Does my response reflect the mind of Christ in my choices each day?

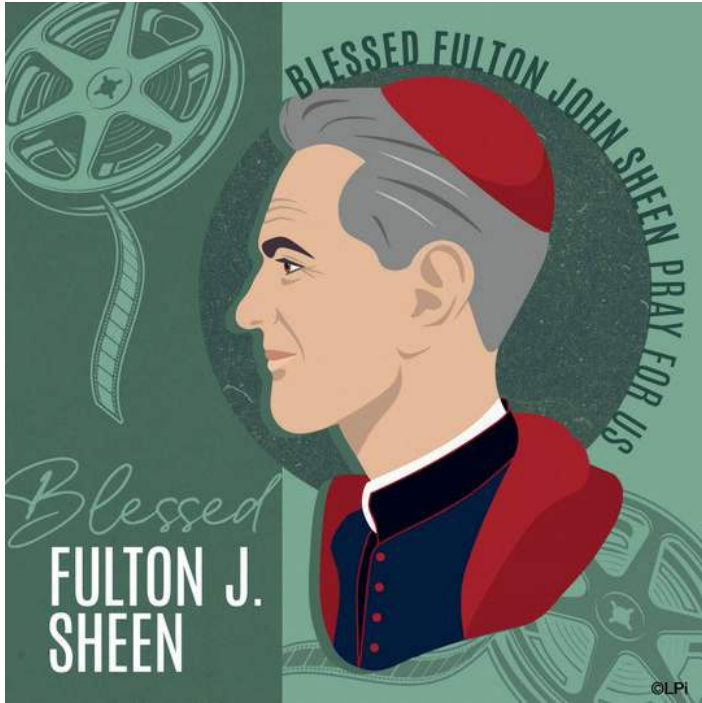

GOD ISN'T FINISHED WITH US

The first reading from Ezekiel gives us a message of responsibility and hope. A person who turns from sin and chooses right will live. Past choices matter, but they do not remove your responsibility to choose God today. Conversion requires change of direction followed by action.

Think about an area of your life where your response to God has weakened. Prayer might have become irregular. Resentment might remain unresolved. You might have ignored someone who needed help. You might have made a promise to God and failed to follow through. Name the problem. Ask for forgiveness. Then take one concrete step toward God.

God asks for your response today. Yesterday's faithfulness does not replace today's obedience. Yesterday's refusal does not have to control today's choice. The Father still calls you to work in His vineyard. Listen to His invitation. Examine your actions. Then ask yourself, where is God asking me to stop talking about my yes and start living it?

FULTON SHEEN: A VOICE FOR CHRIST BECOMES BLESSED

BY JOSEPH LANGENBACH

Long before podcasts, social media, and live-streamed Masses, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen understood something important: if people were gathering around a new form of media, the Church should be there too.

With a chalkboard, a commanding voice, and a gift for explaining the Catholic faith, Sheen became one of the most recognizable Catholic figures in America. Millions heard him on radio and watched him on television. Yet the Church is not beatifying Fulton Sheen because he was famous. Sheen is being beatified because behind the television personality was a priest whose life was rooted in prayer, the Eucharist, and a deep love for Jesus Christ.

Born in Illinois in 1895, Fulton John Sheen was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Peoria in 1919. He became a respected scholar and professor, but his greatest gift was his ability to make the faith understandable. He could take theology, morality, suffering, marriage, temptation, or prayer and speak about it in a way that reached ordinary people.

Radio gave him his first enormous audience through The Catholic Hour. Television expanded that audience even further. His program Life Is Worth Living attracted millions of viewers, including many who were not Catholic. There were no elaborate sets. Often, there was simply Sheen, his blackboard, and a message.

Behind that public ministry was something much quieter.

Sheen made a daily Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament. He encouraged priests and laypeople to spend time with Christ in Eucharistic Adoration and believed his preaching had to begin with prayer. Before speaking to millions about Jesus, Sheen first spent time speaking with Jesus.

That distinction helps us understand his beatification.

The Church does not beatify people because they were successful or influential. A cause for sainthood examines whether a person lived a life of heroic Christian virtue. In 2012, Pope Benedict XVI recognized Sheen's heroic virtues and declared him Venerable.

Then came the miracle.

In 2010, James Fulton Engstrom was born in Illinois without signs of life. For more than an hour, his family and others prayed for Sheen's intercession. James survived and recovered without the severe neurological damage expected after such a prolonged period without a heartbeat. Following medical and theological investigation, the Vatican recognized his recovery as a miracle attributed to Sheen's intercession. Pope Francis approved the miracle in 2019, clearing the way for beatification. On September 24, 2026, the Church will formally declare Fulton J. Sheen "Blessed."

His beatification offers a timely lesson. Sheen embraced the technology of his day without changing the Gospel to fit it. He went where people were and brought Christ with him. His tools were microphones, television cameras, books, and chalkboards. Ours may be different. The mission remains the same. Blessed Fulton J. Sheen, pray for us.

12 • RESPECT LIFE

RESPECT LIFE: WHAT ARE ABORTION PILLS?

Most abortions are no longer done by surgery in clinics, but by taking pills.

The rate of women taking abortion pills is increasing (and is at hundreds of thousands per year). The first pill (mifepristone) kills preborn babies by cutting them off from blood and oxygen. A second pill (misoprostol) then helps push the babies' remains out. While these drugs can have other uses, they are a deadly combination for preborn children.

In addition to ending the lives of babies, abortion pills are dangerous for the mothers who take them.

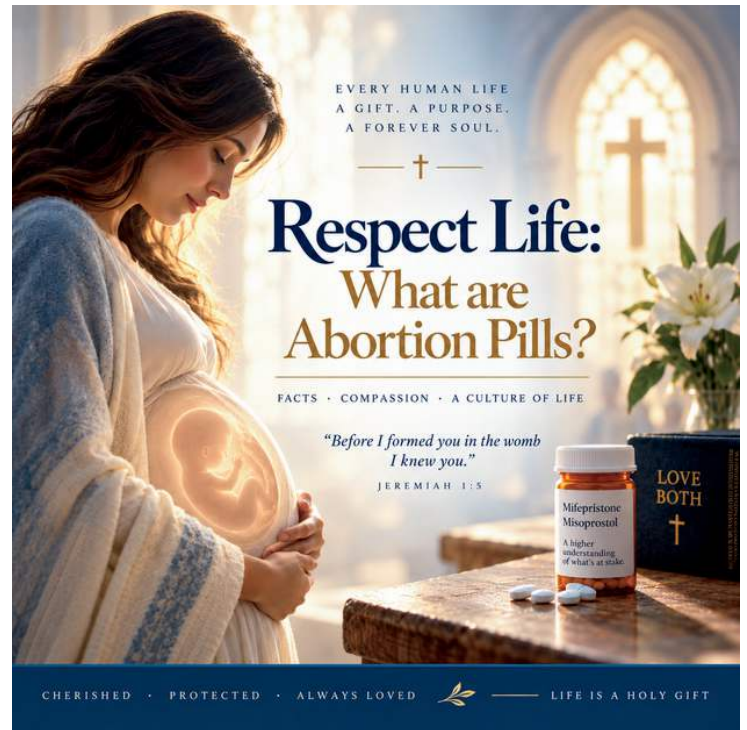

They have been found to cause four times as many complications as surgical abortions. A 2025 study found that 10 percent of women who take abortion pills need to get urgent treatment for problems afterward like infections, hemorrhages, or remains of the baby not having come out. But the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has taken shortcuts over the years and removed guardrails around the pills. This allows the abortion industry to push the abortion pill more and more.

In 2021, the FDA made the abortion pill available even without an in-person doctor visit.

That means a woman might be taking the pill dangerously late in her pregnancy, or during a complicated pregnancy where it would be unsafe, and a doctor wouldn't know. Being able to get abortion pills by "telehealth" video appointment and mailed to your home, or at your local pharmacy, also means abortions are now happening everywhere and anywhere, often with women suffering through the trauma of delivering their dead baby alone.

This easier access to abortion pills also increases the chances of their being used by abusive partners or sex trafficking criminals against a woman's will.

Because abortion pills can be sent through the mail, they are also often being sent from states with pro-abortion laws to women in states with pro-life laws. That means the pro-life states don't have the ability to protect life and women in need like they were supposed to after the Supreme Court finally overturned Roe v. Wade in 2022. Some women who take the first abortion pill may have time to change their mind with an "abortion pill reversal" process, but some states are trying to block access to this last chance for life.

What can you do to help protect women and babies from abortion pills?

1. Pray for women who are deceived by the abortion industry.
2. Share the risks of the abortion pill with your friends.
3. Sign up for Respect Life Prayer and Action to help protect women and babies from these dangerous drugs at respectlife.org/prayer-and-action.

If you or someone you know has participated in abortion, know that mercy, hope and healing are available through diocesan Project Rachel Ministry. Learn more at HopeAfterAbortion.com. First Way Pregnancy Center, Aid to Women Center and Life Choices Women's Clinic would like to humbly thank the parishioners at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish & Mission for their continued support of all three pregnancy centers. Saving babies, mothers and fathers could not be accomplished without your support and prayer.

The Respect Life Ministry meets the first Tuesday of every month. A pro-life rosary is prayed in the church at 1:00 pm, followed by a general meeting in the Fr. McGivney Room at 1:30 pm.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

AMAZING GRACE

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind but now I see.

2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

3. The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

OFFERTORY HYMN

CHANGE OUR HEARTS

Change our hearts this time,
your word says it can be.
Change our minds this time,
your life could make us free.
We are the people your call set apart,
Lord, this time change our hearts.

1. Brought by your hand
To the edge of our dreams,
One foot in paradise, one in the waste;
Drawn by your promises,
Still we are lured by the shadows
And the chains we leave behind.

2. Now as we watch
You stretch out your hands,
Off'ring abundances, fullness of joy.
Your milk and honey seem distant, unreal,
When we have bread and water in our hands.

3. Show us the way that leads to your side,
over the mountains and sands of the soul.
Be for us manna, water from stone,
light which says we never walk alone.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

COMMUNION HYMN

1. O Jesus, we adore thee,
Who, in thy love divine,
Conceal thy mighty Godhead
In forms of bread and wine.

O Sacrament most holy,
O Sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment thine!

286 – O SACRAMENT MOST HOLY

2. O Jesus, we adore thee,
Our Victim and our Priest,
Whose precious Blood and Body
Become our sacred feast.

3. O Jesus, we adore thee,
Our Savior and our King,
And with the saints and angels
Our humble homage bring.

COMMUNION HYMN

1. What wondrous love is this,
O my soul, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this
That caused the Lord of bliss
To bear the dreadful curse
for my soul, for my soul,
To bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

399 – WHAT WONDROUS LOVE

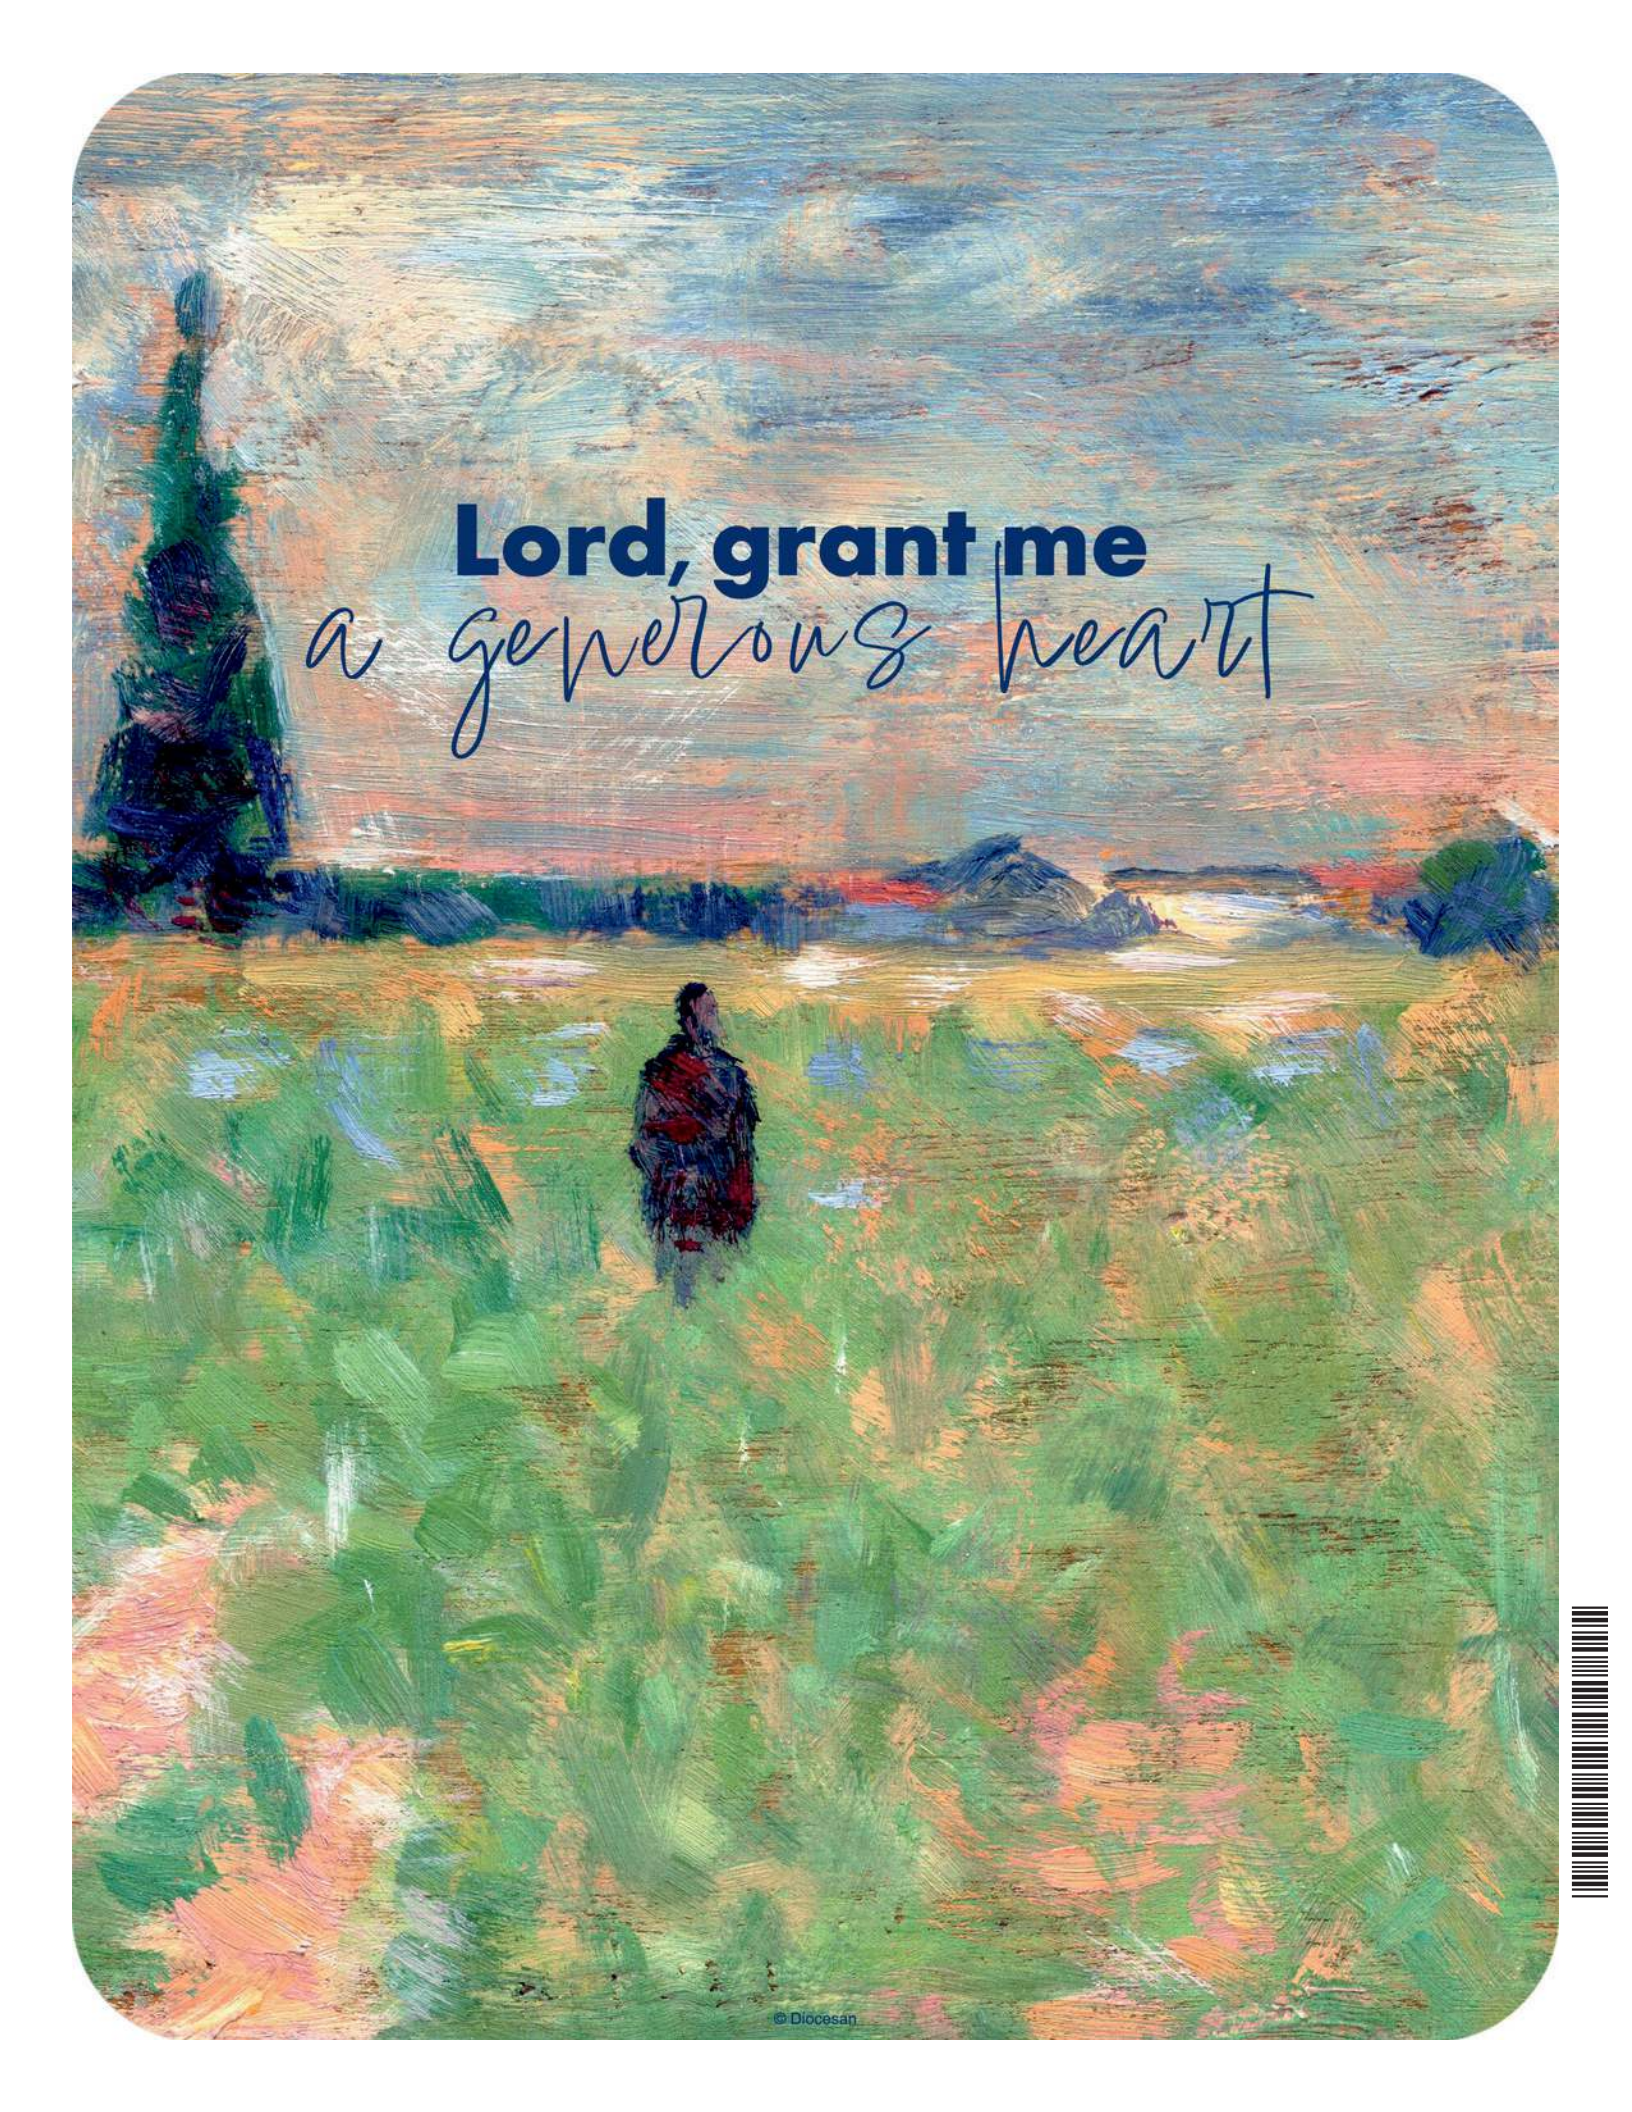

2. To God and to the Lamb,
I will sing, I will sing;
To God and to the Lamb, I will sing.
To God and to the Lamb
Who is the great "I Am,"
While millions join the theme,
I will sing, I will sing;
While millions join the theme, I will sing.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
The King of creation!
O my soul, praise him,
For he is your health and salvation!
All you who hear,
Now to his temple draw near;
Praise him in glad adoration.

#316 – PRAISE TO THE LORD, THE ALMIGHTY

2. Praise to the Lord, above all things
So gloriously reigning;
Shelt'ring you under his wings,
And so gently sustaining!
Have you not seen
All that is needful has been Sent by his gracious ordaining?

An impressionistic painting of a person standing in a vast, open field. The person is seen from behind, wearing a dark, patterned garment. The field is rendered with thick, textured brushstrokes in shades of green, yellow, and orange. In the background, there are dark, silhouetted trees and a distant horizon under a sky with soft, blended colors of blue, pink, and orange. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Lord, grant me a generous heart
