OUR LADY OF LOURDES
PARISH & MISSION

A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

A LETTER TO OUR PARISH FAMILY

Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks to see a coin. He holds it up and says, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They answer, "Caesar's." And Jesus replies, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:20-21).

The coin bore Caesar's image, but God's image is stamped on us. We belong to Him. Everything we have is His gift, entrusted to our care for a time. That is the heart of stewardship: receiving what God gives, caring for it, and one day handing it on.

Our parish and mission are part of that trust. Those who came before us built this church and passed it on to us. Now it is our turn to care for it and prepare it for those who will come after.

I need to speak with you about our church's air conditioning. The current unit is original to the building. It has served us for decades, but it is worn out, and replacing it is now necessary. A new system, along with the electrical and ductwork updates required by code, will cost $115,000.

What weighs on my heart is not just the cost, but the thought of someone staying home from Mass in July because the church is too hot. For many, that heat is a matter of health. I want this church to remain a safe and comfortable place for all who come to worship. For this reason, we have begun the Keep Lourdes Cool: Air Conditioning Fund.

I know how faithfully so many of you already support Our Lady of Lourdes. I ask each household to pray about making a sacrificial gift to this fund, according to your means, so we can keep our parish cool, welcoming, and safe for everyone.

In today's second reading, St. Paul thanks God for the Thessalonians, remembering their "work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Thessalonians 1:2-3). I give thanks for you in the same way. Caring for our church, including keeping it cool, is one way we love those who gather here now and those who will gather here long after we are gone.

If you are able to help, there are three ways to give:

- Through our website, ololscw.org (select Keep Lourdes Cool: Air Conditioning Fund)
- By directing a gift from your IRA's Required Minimum Distribution through a Qualified Charitable Distribution. The parish office can assist you.
- By check, placed in the collection or brought to the parish office. Please write "Keep Lourdes Cool: Air Conditioning Fund" on the memo line.

The psalm says, "Give to the LORD the glory due his name," and "Bring gifts and enter his courts" (Psalm 96:8). We do not buy our way into His courts. He has already invited us. We simply bring what we can, and we come in.

Your generosity has sustained this parish for many years. I am grateful for you, and I ask you to keep me in your prayers as we care for our parish home together.

May God bless you all.

In Christ,

Fr. Sheunesu

A scholar asks Jesus which commandment matters most. Jesus answers with two that cannot be separated: love God with your whole heart, soul, and mind, and love your neighbor as yourself. These are not competing duties. Together, they reveal what a life rooted in God should look like. His answer invites us beyond words into a daily commitment of faith and action.

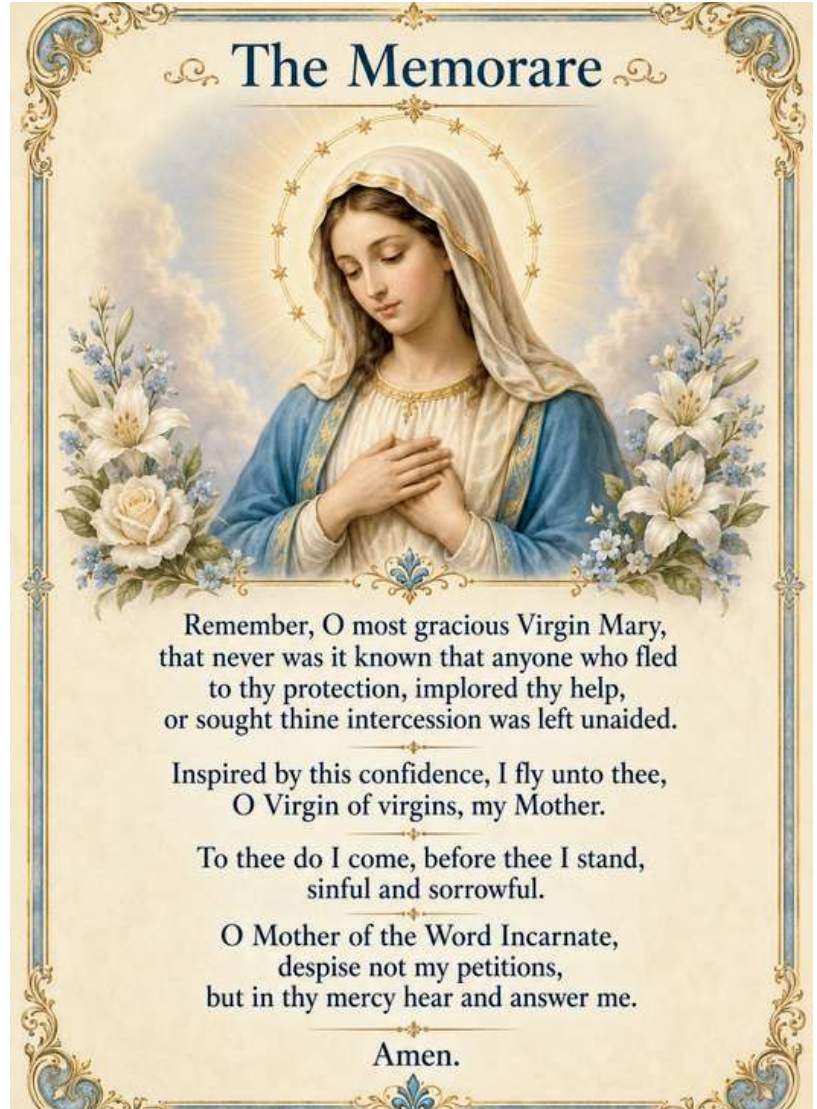

We may think loving God means praying faithfully and attending Mass. These matter deeply, but worship must shape how we live beyond church doors. Scripture reminds us that we cannot claim to love the God we cannot see while refusing to love the neighbor we can see.

That love is not always easy. In the first reading, God defends strangers, widows, orphans, and the poor. Caring for them may cost us time, comfort, money, or pride. Compassion means more than recognizing another person's suffering. It means being willing to carry some of the burden.

Perhaps we see someone struggling but feel too busy to help. Perhaps forgiveness seems unfair, or patience feels impossible. Jesus does not pretend love is effortless. He calls us to give ourselves, especially when kindness asks something real of us. Such sacrifices are not wasted. They make God's love visible.

Still, we all fall short. If these words uncover a failure in your own heart, do not lose hope. God's mercy is greater than our weakness. In prayer and the Sacrament of Reconciliation, He welcomes us back and gives us grace to begin again. We are not asked to love by strength alone.

This Sunday, consider who needs more than your good intentions. Where might God be asking you to give, forgive, or change? Love of neighbor is not simply proof that we love God. It is one of the ways our love for Him becomes real.

ST. JUDE THADDEUS: HOPE WHEN ALL SEEMS LOST

BY JOSEPH LANGENBACH

Saint Jude Thaddeus was one of the Twelve Apostles chosen by Jesus. At the Last Supper, one question revealed his desire to understand Christ. Jude wondered why Jesus would reveal Himself to His disciples and not to the world. Jesus answered by speaking of love, faithfulness, and God's promise to dwell with those who love Him.

The Church honors Saint Jude on October 28, together with Saint Simon. Over time, Catholics came to seek Jude's intercession in desperate and seemingly hopeless situations. The origins of this patronage are not entirely clear, but its meaning points us toward an essential truth: no suffering places us beyond God's care.

We do not pray to Saint Jude as though he could grant miracles himself. We ask him to pray for us, just as we ask family and friends to pray. His intercession leads us to Christ, the source of our hope.

When answers seem distant, Jude's example encourages us to remain faithful. Hope begins not with knowing what will happen, but with knowing whom we trust.

Some prayers come easily. Others rise from places of exhaustion, grief, or fear. We ask God to heal someone we love, restore a broken relationship, or lift a burden we can barely carry. When nothing seems to change, even hope can feel difficult.

This is why so many Catholics turn to Saint Jude Thaddeus, an Apostle honored as the patron of desperate causes. We do not ask him to replace Christ or guarantee the outcome we desire. We ask him to pray with us, trusting that every grace comes from God.

At the Last Supper, Jude asked why Jesus would reveal Himself to His disciples and not to the world. Jesus answered by speaking of love: those who love Him keep His word, and God makes His dwelling with them. Christ did not promise His followers a life without suffering. He promised a relationship that suffering cannot destroy.

That distinction matters when our prayers appear unanswered. Christian hope is not confidence that events will unfold according to our plans. It is faith that the Crucified and Risen Lord remains near, even when we cannot understand His ways. The Cross teaches us that God's love can be present where everything appears lost.

Hope also invites action. We may need to accept help, offer forgiveness, endure another difficult day, or accompany someone whose pain has no easy solution. Grace often reaches us through ordinary acts of courage and charity. He hears prayers we struggle to put into words.

If you are carrying what feels impossible, bring it honestly to Christ. Ask Saint Jude to intercede for you. You need not hide your fear or pretend to be strong. Hope is not seeing the whole road. It is trusting the One who walks beside us.

YOUR GENEROSITY CHANGES LIVES

SVDP is collecting food during the month of October. Non-perishable food donations can be put in the bins in the narthex. THANK YOU for helping to stock the shelves!

Below is a thank you letter from a neighbor we visited.

"I am a mother of 4 children who has chosen a new path in life. My career change to pursue nursing has caused some financial difficulties and I found myself needing assistance. I have sought help from many agencies and was turned away. Knowing that my help came from a congregation of God's faithful people in my area blessed me so much. It proves that God's word is true. Psalm 121:1-2 'My help comes from the Lord.' I thank everyone who helps and everyone who has the heart to help. Together, we are all, in some way making this world a better place. It starts with our communities. May God continue to bless us all! Your help paid my water bill!"

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

1. Come, Thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it;
Mount of Thy redeeming love.

2. Here I raise my Ebenezer;
Hither to Thy help I'm come.
And I hope by Thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,

COME, THOU FOUNT OF EVERY BLESSING

Wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His Precious Blood.

3. O to grace, how great a debtor,
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let Thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it for Thy courts above.

GLORIA

Mass of Renewal

FIRST READING

Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans.

"If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cf. John 14:23

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord,
And my Father will love him and we will come to him.

GOSPEL

Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

OFFERTORY HYMN

THE SERVANT SONG

1. Will you let me be your servant,
Let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I may have the grace to Let you be my servant, too.

4. I will weep when you are weeping;
When you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
'Til we've seen this journey through.

2. We are pilgrims on a journey,
We are trav'lers on the road;
We are here to help each other
Walk the mile and bear the load.

5. When we sing to God in heaven
We shall find such harmony,
Born of all we've known together
Of Christ's love and agony.

3. I will hold the Christ-light for you
In the nighttime of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
Speak the peace you long to hear.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

COMMUNION HYMN

1. Christians, let us love one another,
As we share the true living bread.
Jesus is our God and our brother;
With his flesh and blood we are fed.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.
2. We who break this bread are one body,
We who share this cup are all one.
Children of our Father in heaven,
We are heirs with God's only son.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.
3. We who eat and drink at this table
Die and rise again with our Lord.
Drawing from our Rock living water
Giv'n to all who thirst for accord.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

COMMUNION HYMN

1. Panis angélicus fit panis hóminum;
Dat panis cælicus figúris términum:
O res mirábilis! mandúcat Dóminum
Pauper, servus et húmilis.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

1. My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.
- No storm can shake my inmost calm,
While to that rock I'm clinging.
Since Love is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?

CHRISTIANS, LET US LOVE ANOTHER

4. On the path of life we may falter,
Earthly food alone leaves us weak;
Always you invite from the altar,
"Hungry souls their food here must seek."
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.
5. Wheat and grape incarnate a myst'ry:
Jesus is the true living bread.
Let us eat with joy and thanksgiving,
Trusting in the word he has said.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

PANIS ANGELICUS

2. Te trina Déitas unáque póscimus:
Sic nos tu vísita, sicut te cólimus;
Per tuas sémitas duc nos quo téndimus,
Ad lucem quam inhábitas. Amen.

HOW CAN I KEEP FROM SINGING

2. Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing;
it sounds and echoes in my soul;
How can I keep from singing?
3. What though the tempest 'round me roar,
I hear the truth, it liveth;
What though the darkness 'round me close,
songs in the night it giveth.
